PIZZA FOR AN ARTICLE

About

Pizza for an Article ("PFA") is an initiative by the Gradyoumate Foundation that is aimed at encouraging students of law to write short articles on contemporary issues that are free from legalese and have the potential to sensitize the general public on issues of the law. The submissions received under this initiative will be published on the Gymblawg.

The submitted article must attempt to demystify a particular issue or an area of law, so that the article could be used as a tool to disseminate the knowledge of law.
